

UNICAT

The new Belgian union catalogue is available

<http://www.unicat.be>

Are you looking for a specific book or journal for your research or teaching, but you want to avoid searching the catalogues of academic libraries (universities, schools for higher education, museum, heritage institutions, ...) one by one? UniCat meets your need!

UniCat is a portal that lets you search and discover Belgian academic library collections. Using powerful search options, UniCat leads you to libraries holding the book or the journal you were looking for. You want to request the book from a library or you want to obtain a photocopy of a journal article? You can contact the library directly or you can request the book or journal article through interlibrary loan from your local library.

UniCat contains about 14 million records from following libraries:
